Aluminium has potential for “squeeze”.

By Marina Kolesnikova, - February 15th 2011

Aluminum has the potential for a “squeeze” when high inventories are not available to the market, Catherine Raw, who helps manage BlackRock Inc.’s World Mining Fund, said.

Most of the aluminum inventories are believed to be locked there until the end of the year, she said at the JetFin Commo2011 conference in Geneva today.
